

BRIEF CONTENTS

1	Key concepts	1
2	Theoretical approaches	18
3	Comparative methods	35
4	The state	52
5	Democratic rule	70
6	Authoritarian rule	89
7	Constitutions and courts	106
8	Executives	124
9	Legislatures	141
10	Bureaucracies	160
11	Sub-national governments	179
12	Political culture	199
13	Political participation	216
14	Political communication	234
15	Elections	252
16	Political parties	270
17	Voters	287
18	Interest groups	306
19	Public policy	324
20	Political economy	342

DETAILED CONTENTS

Illustrations and features	ix	Nations and nationalism	62
Preface	xii	The future of the state	63
Guide to the eleventh edition	xv
Guide to learning features	xviii
Guide to the website	xx
Publisher's acknowledgements	xxi
1 Key concepts	1	5 Democratic rule	70
Key concepts: an overview	2	Democratic rule: an overview	71
Government and governance	2	Direct democracy	72
Politics and power	4	Representative democracy	73
The state, authority, and legitimacy	8	Liberal democracy	76
Ideology	9	Modernization and democracy	77
Comparative politics	11	Huntington's waves of democracy	79
Classifying political systems	12	Democratization	83
		The future of democracy	85
2 Theoretical approaches	18	6 Authoritarian rule	89
Theoretical approaches: an overview	19	Authoritarian rule: an overview	90
The changing face of comparative politics	19	Hybrid regimes	90
The institutional approach	23	Authoritarian regimes	91
The rational choice approach	26	Forms of authoritarian rule	94
The structural approach	29	The political impact of corruption	102
The cultural approach	30
The interpretive approach	31	7 Constitutions and courts	106
		Constitutions and courts:
3 Comparative methods	35	an overview	107
Comparative methods: an overview	36	The character of constitutions	107
The case study method	36	The durability of constitutions	109
The qualitative method	39	The role of courts	110
The quantitative method	41	The role of the judiciary	113
The historical method	43	Systems of law	116
The challenges of comparison	46	Constitutions and courts in
		authoritarian states	119
4 The state	52	8 Executives	124
The state: an overview	53	Executives: an overview	125
What is a state?	53	Heads of state and government	125
Origins and evolution	55	Presidential executives	127
The diversity of states	59	Parliamentary executives	129

Semi-presidential executives	134	14 Political communication	234
Executives in authoritarian states	136	Political communication: an overview	235
9 Legislatures	141	The evolution of mass media	235
Legislatures: an overview	142	Into the digital age	238
The role of legislatures	142	Media influence	240
One chamber or two?	148	Recent trends in political communication	242
Representatives and their work	153	Political communication in authoritarian states	246
Legislatures in authoritarian states	155	15 Elections	252
10 Bureaucracies	160	Elections: an overview	253
Bureaucracies: an overview	161	Legislative elections	253
Origins and evolution	161	Executive elections	258
E-government	165	Referendums, initiatives, and recalls	261
How bureaucracies are organized	166	Elections in authoritarian states	266
How bureaucrats are recruited	172	16 Political parties	270
Bureaucracies in authoritarian states	173	Political parties: an overview	271
11 Sub-national governments	179	Origins and roles	271
Sub-national governments: an overview	180	Party systems	272
Multi-level governance	180	Party organization	279
Unitary systems	181	Political parties in authoritarian states	282
Federal systems	184	17 Voters	287
Local government	190	Voters: an overview	288
Sub-national government in authoritarian states	193	Party identification	288
12 Political culture	199	How voters choose	290
Political culture: an overview	200	Voter turnout	296
Understanding political culture	200	Voters in authoritarian states	298
From The Civic Culture to post-materialism	202	18 Interest groups	306
Political trust	207	Interest groups: an overview	307
A clash of civilizations?	208	Origins and types of groups	307
Political culture in authoritarian states	211	Channels of influence	310
13 Political participation	216	Ingredients of influence	312
Political participation: an overview	217	The dynamics of interest groups	314
Who participates, and why?	217	Interest groups in authoritarian states	318
Public opinion	220	19 Public policy	324
The dynamics of public opinion	222	Public policy: an overview	325
Women in government and politics	223	Models of the policy process	325
Political participation in authoritarian states	227	The policy cycle	328
		Policy diffusion and convergence	332
		Public policy in authoritarian states	337

VIII DETAILED CONTENTS

20	Political economy	342	Development and global divisions	351
	Political economy: an overview	343	Political economy in authoritarian states	352
	Understanding political economy	343
	Comparative political economy	345	Bibliography	359
	The welfare state	348	Index	374